

SAN JOSE AFTER SCHOOL

Sherman Oaks Area

San José After School is a partnership by the City of San José, with school districts, community-based organizations, teachers and parents to provide safe, fun and enriching activities for youth after school.

After school programs promote healthy youth development and student learning. This includes homework centers and tutoring, recreation, arts, and enrichment activities, and technology centers. Youth will enjoy safe, fun, and enriching activities at sites located throughout San José.

There are wonderful after school programs in your area. For more information about schools, libraries, and centers offering after school programs, please contact 408-794-1660.

Types of Programs

Level 1: Homework Assistance. Level one sites offer after school homework help at many locations in San José.

Level 2: Safe and Accessible After School Programs. Level two sites offer integrated recreation and literacy and math enrichment programs.

Level 3: Integrated and Comprehensive approach After School Programs. Level three sites integrate literacy, leadership, education, nutrition, cultural arts and recreation activities.

Please contact your Community Center for more information on program site levels.

SPECIALTY CLASSES

Seventrees Branch Library is offering two Internet classes:

Finding Websites for Adults is a one-hour class that introduces you to 3 different ways to find websites and use the browser program. As part of the class, you will receive a list of websites that build on the class and include sites for improving your skill in using a mouse and typing.

Using Email for Adults is a one-hour class that helps you set up an email account. You will practice sending and receiving messages. You will also be shown how to attach a file to a message that you send and how to open a file attached to a message that you receive. You will have a reminder of your account name and password to take home for future use.

Classes are designed for beginners who have some typing skills and are taught at the Library, 3597 Cas Dr. Classes alternate each week. The same class is held on Wednesday at 11am. and repeated on Saturday at 10am. The next week the other class is taught. Class size is limited to 4. Please pre-register for class by calling the Library at 408-629-4536 to sign up.
